

Fallen Timbers Backyard Activities

Alpha Hike!

In this activity, we will be exploring outdoors and using creative thinking, as we look for things that start with every letter of the alphabet. You can take this activity on a hike in a natural area, through your neighborhood, or just in your backyard. Try to list as many NATURAL objects as you can, rather than human-made things. You may need to get creative for some of the trickier letters, like Q or Y. You could use Adjectives, such as Quick bunny, or Yellow leaf.
